

HON. J. W. JOHNSON.

DEATH YESTERDAY OF THIS DISTINGUISHED GENTLEMAN.

Sketch of His Life—Circuit Court Judge and United States Senator—The Funeral.

The Hon. John Ward Johnson died at his home, No. 107 First street, at 4:40 o'clock yesterday morning.

As a Commonwealth's attorney, State senator, circuit judge, and a senator in the Congress of the United States he had served his country with ability and fidelity. Far and wide he was known and everywhere recognized as a pure and upright gentleman.

Virginia never had a son more devoted to her interests, or one whose heart was more firmly wedded to her history and traditions.

THE JOHNSONS.

The founder of this family in Virginia was Peter Johnson, a Scotchman, who lived in Prince Edward, and who gave to Hampton-Sidney the land upon which the college was built.

After Johnson, a son of this settler, became a member of the House of Delegates, and was Speaker of the body at the time the famous resolution of 1788 and 1789 were passed. His service in that body made a great name for him, and he and Judge Brockenbrough were elected judges at the time the famous resolution of 1788 and 1779 were passed.

AN EXCHANGE.

In these days of Southern Virginia was almost a wilderness, and Judge Brockenbrough and his family lived in a frontier life, while Judge Johnson did not.

THE SUBJECT OF THIS SKETCH RECEIVED HIS EARLY EDUCATION AT THE ABBINGTON ACADEMY, AN INSTITUTION OF MORE THAN LOCAL CELEBRITY, AND HAVING BEEN PREPARED FOR COLLEGE AT THE AGE OF SEVENTEEN, HE ENTERED THE UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, WHERE HE WAS ONE OF THE MOST DISTINGUISHED STUDENTS.

COLLEGE LIFE.

The subject of this sketch received his early education at the Abington Academy, an institution of more than local celebrity, and having been prepared for college at the age of seventeen, he entered the University of Virginia, where he was one of the most distinguished students.

THE UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA.

During the war Mr. Johnson served the Confederacy as receiver under the acts of Congress confiscating the property of aliens, and in his administration showed such good sense and integrity that he was promoted to the position of receiver of the United States Treasury.

THE UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA.

During the war Mr. Johnson served the Confederacy as receiver under the acts of Congress confiscating the property of aliens, and in his administration showed such good sense and integrity that he was promoted to the position of receiver of the United States Treasury.

THE UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA.

During the war Mr. Johnson served the Confederacy as receiver under the acts of Congress confiscating the property of aliens, and in his administration showed such good sense and integrity that he was promoted to the position of receiver of the United States Treasury.

THE UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA.

During the war Mr. Johnson served the Confederacy as receiver under the acts of Congress confiscating the property of aliens, and in his administration showed such good sense and integrity that he was promoted to the position of receiver of the United States Treasury.

THE UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA.

LOVELY WEDDINGS.

MISS ANNIE LEARY MARRIED TO MAJOR J. D. PATTON.

The wedding of Major James D. Patton and Miss Anne Leary was solemnized at St. Paul's church last evening in the presence of a great throng of spectators.

THE CEREMONY.

The ceremony was solemnized at St. Paul's church last evening in the presence of a great throng of spectators.

THE CEREMONY.

The ceremony was solemnized at St. Paul's church last evening in the presence of a great throng of spectators.

THE CEREMONY.

The ceremony was solemnized at St. Paul's church last evening in the presence of a great throng of spectators.

THE CEREMONY.

The ceremony was solemnized at St. Paul's church last evening in the presence of a great throng of spectators.

THE CEREMONY.

The ceremony was solemnized at St. Paul's church last evening in the presence of a great throng of spectators.

THE CEREMONY.

The ceremony was solemnized at St. Paul's church last evening in the presence of a great throng of spectators.

THE CEREMONY.

The ceremony was solemnized at St. Paul's church last evening in the presence of a great throng of spectators.

THE CEREMONY.

The ceremony was solemnized at St. Paul's church last evening in the presence of a great throng of spectators.

THE CEREMONY.

The ceremony was solemnized at St. Paul's church last evening in the presence of a great throng of spectators.

THE CEREMONY.

The ceremony was solemnized at St. Paul's church last evening in the presence of a great throng of spectators.

THE CEREMONY.

HANGED.

HOWARD ANDERSON EXECUTED IN NORTH CAROLINA YESTERDAY.

A Twenty-five Cent Crime—Governor Fowle is Subjected to a Trying Ordeal—Notes.

RALEIGH, N. C., February 27.—Howard Anderson, a convict, was executed yesterday at 2 o'clock. Death occurred in seven minutes. The neck was broken. The prisoner was a white man, and his crime was the murder of a poor old barber, named William, in the city of Raleigh.

THE MURDER.

THE MURDER.

THE MURDER.

THE MURDER.

THE MURDER.

THE MURDER.

THE MURDER.

THE MURDER.

THE MURDER.

THE MURDER.

THE MURDER.

THE MURDER.

THE MURDER.

THE MURDER.

THE MURDER.

THE MURDER.

THE MURDER.

THE MURDER.

THE MURDER.

THE MURDER.

WEST POINT'S BOOM.

Mr. Thomas H. Henley Purchases the Property of the Potomac Station of the Atlantic Coast.

One of the most active promoters of the property of the Potomac station of the Atlantic coast, Mr. Thomas H. Henley, of West Point, who has just purchased the property of the Potomac station of the Atlantic coast, is now in the city of Washington, and is expected to return to West Point in a few days.

THE BOOM.

THE BOOM.

THE BOOM.

THE BOOM.

THE BOOM.

THE BOOM.

THE BOOM.

THE BOOM.

THE BOOM.

THE BOOM.

THE BOOM.

THE BOOM.

THE BOOM.

THE BOOM.

THE BOOM.

THE BOOM.

THE BOOM.

THE BOOM.

THE BOOM.

THE BOOM.

THE BOOM.